- 32.5.3 After their first official participation, all players must maintain the same shirt number and name for all UAE PL Competitions throughout the entire season. Numbers allocated to a player registered in any other UAE PL Competitions, who have participated in any of the UAE PL competitions, cannot be used again for any other player at the same season, even if he was removed from the team list for any reason. Numbers are from 1 to 99 with number 1 reserved for the goalkeeper.
- 32.6 The Executive Department shall determine the kit colours (outfield players and goalkeepers) for each Competition match and the Host and/ or Visiting team may change the kit colours to any other kit after addressing the Executive Department in writing at least 24 hours upon receipt of the kit colours sheet of the concerned match. The selection of colours will be based on each team's colours approved by the Executive Department of the UAE PL, with preference given as follows in the event of clash of colours:
- 32.6.1 Outfield players of home team;
- 32.6.2 Outfield players of away team;
- 32.6.3 Goalkeeper of home team;
- 32.6.4 Goalkeeper of away team.

The away team may be asked to play using combined kit from its first registered colours, and its second or third registered colours.

There must be no similarity between the colors of the two teams' kits, and the kits must be approved by the match referees prior to kick-off.

- 32.7. Without prejudice to the above, priority in determining the colors for the final match of the competition shall be given on the basis that Club (A) is the home club and Club (B) is the away club.
- 32.8. In the event that all of the options referred to above have been fully exhausted, and the away team fails to bring the reserve kits that differ from the home team's kit as designated by the Executive Department, a waiting period of 15 minutes from the scheduled kick-off time shall be observed. If the away team is unable to provide the kits within this time, the referee must cancel the match and consider the away team to have lost by a score of (3-0).
- 32.9. Participating clubs must bring to each competition match the kit approved by the Executive Department as well as a second kit differing in color for all players and goalkeepers, ensuring that there is no similarity between the colors of the two kits. If a club fails to comply with this clause and such failure does not result in the cancellation of the match, the club concerned shall be fined AED 10,000 (ten thousand UAE dirhams) in accordance with the Quality Control Procedure (QCP).

- 54.1.4 As an exception to Article (54.1.2), and by the end of the matches of the semifinals, the third yellow card which leads to suspension due to accumulation of yellow cards for players participating in the Final match, will be waived.
- 54.1.5 If any of the Administrative and Technical team members gets three yellow cards in three different matches of the same competition, that member shall be suspended for one match of the same competition.
- 54.2 If the result of a Competition Match is abandoned or the Match is terminated or is not completed for any reason, the Disciplinary Regulations shall apply.
- 54.3 Each Club shall be obliged to execute such penalties either by suspension or payment of any fines and shall bear the responsibility of monitoring the cautions and/or suspensions received by its players and officials to ensure that all players and officials registered and/or fielded during the competition are eligible to play according to the final report of the match as submitted on the FA Net after being approved by the match referee and match commissioner.
- 54.4 In case a player, or any of the technical, administrative or medical team members is transferred or loaned to any of the Member Clubs within the season, he maintains his records of yellow card(s). The previous Club must inform the new Club of the yellow cards that he has collected to date and the new Club is responsible to continue the monitoring process.
- 54.5 At the end of the Competition, all cautions imposed on players shall be dropped subject to the Disciplinary Regulations.

Article (55): Expulsions (Red Cards)

55.1 Players who are sent off as a result of two yellow cards in a single match of the Competition shall:

55.1.1 Be automatically suspended in the next subsequent match in the Competition, subject to the provisions of Article 65(c) of the Disciplinary Regulations, and shall pay a fine of AED 1,500.

55.2 Players who are sent off for a direct red card during any Competition Match shall:

55.2.1 Be automatically suspended for the following next two (2) matches in the Competition. The exception to this rule is for any player who denies the opposing team of a clear goal scoring opportunity (particular by deliberately handling the ball), in which case the player shall then be automatically suspended for one (1) match in the same Competition, subject to the provisions of Article 65(c) of the Disciplinary Regulations; and 55.2.2 Pay a fine of AED 2,000 and the amount shall be increased by AED 1,000 for each new sending off case.

55.3 If one of the members of the technical or administrative team is sent off after the second yellow card, he shall be suspended for one match in the same competition.

55.4 If one of the members of the technical or administrative team is sent off after a direct red card, he shall be suspended for one match in the same competition.

55.5 An administrative fee of AED 250 (two hundred and fifty UAE dirhams) will be imposed for each red card obtained during the competition

55.6 If the competition ends, all warnings received by members of the technical and administrative staff will be dropped and the expulsion will be transferred to the following competitions.

55.7 In case suspension imposed on the technical or administrative, and medical team (except for the head coach and the assistant coach) was not served, the violation shall be referred to the Disciplinary Committee which shall impose either of the following:

55.7.1 a fine of AED 100,000. The suspension penalty shall be served in the following match where the penalty is servable.

55.8 If the head coach or the assistant coach did not serve the suspension, the penalty shall be referred to the Disciplinary Committee to impose one of the following:

55.8.1 The team is considered to have lost the match with a score of (3-0) or if the score is greater, the greater score shall prevail, and the suspension penalty will be imposed in the subsequent enforceable match.

55.9 Notwithstanding the relevant articles of the Disciplinary regulations, the Disciplinary Committee may impose additional sanctions and/or fine. The Disciplinary Committee may also determine that the suspensions be served in other competitions.

55.10 If a player is sent off for a direct red card offence, this shall not affect the number of cautions previously received by him.

55.11 If the result of any match of the Competition has been cancelled or the match has been terminated or hasn't been completed for any reason whatsoever, then the sanction shall be served in the next match in the same Competition.

55.12 In case a player, case a player, or any of the technical, administrative or medical team members is transferred or loaned to any of the Member Clubs within the season, he maintains his records of yellow card(s) which he got until the last day before the transfer. The previous Club must inform the new Club of the yellow cards that he has collected to date and the new Club is responsible to continue the monitoring process.

Article (56): Serving of Suspension

56.1 Suspensions from participation in Competition Matches shall be served in the following manner:

56.1.1 Players shall be automatically suspended for one (1) match in the Competition after obtaining three (3) single yellow cards in the Competition;

56.1.2 Notwithstanding the Disciplinary Regulations, a match will only be calculated within a player's suspension period if the match in question has actually started. Accordingly, matches abandoned before kick-off are not calculated within a player's suspension period.

56.1.3 In the event that the suspension cannot be served in the Competition due to last match of the Competition or elimination of Club from the Competition, the suspensions shall be implemented as follows:

56.1.3.1 In case the League Season has ended, the suspension shall be implemented in the first official match in which the penalized player is eligible to participate.

56.1.3.2 In case the League Season has not ended, the suspension shall be implemented in the first official match in which the penalized player is eligible to participate.

56.1.4 If a suspended player is transferred or loaned to any of the Member Clubs, the player must serve his suspension with his new Club. The player's previous Club shall have to inform the new Club of the penalties imposed on such player in order to be fully served according to the articles herein.

56.2 Notwithstanding Article 56.1.3, the Disciplinary Committee may determine that suspensions are to be served in the Competition and other competitions.

56.3 Annex No. (1) to these regulations explains the mechanism for implementing expulsion and suspension, the areas subject to supervision, and the right of players and any of the technical, administrative, or medical staff who are excluded as a result of expulsion or in implementation of the suspension penalty.
